

FRANCO MODIGLIANI (1918-2003)

an Italian MIT Nobel Laureate

a celebration of his lasting contributions to ECONOMICS and his passionate reflections on ITALY

April 26th, 6:30 - 8:30

MIT, Room 10-250

Introductory remarks by Liborio Stellino, Consul General of Italy in Boston, and Serenella Sferza, MIT-Italy Program Co-director
Master of Ceremonies: Roberto Rigobon, MIT

Renato Camurri, University of Verona

Francesco Giavazzi, Bocconi University Milan and MIT

Robert C. Merton, Harvard Business School (Nobel Laureate 1997)

Stewart Myers, MIT, Director of the Cambridge Endowment for Research in Finance

Robert Solow, MIT and Columbia University NYC (Nobel Laureate 1987)

On the occasion of the publication of "L'Italia vista dall'America, battaglie e riflessioni di un esule", Bollati Boringhieri, Turin, 2010, a collection of Modigliani's articles, interviews, essays selected by Prof. Renato Camurri.

MIT DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

MIT ITALY